

March Break Art Camp with Kelly Barker

Enroll your son or daughter in this year's March Break Art Camp at the Fisheries Museum of the Atlantic in Lunenburg. The camp will be facilitated by artist and art educator Kelly Barker. She brings excitement, talent and experience to each class. Children get a chance to tour the museum and experiment with a wide range of drawing, printmaking, painting and collage techniques during their days. The children are sure to have a lot of fun in a setting filled with history and inspiration!

There are two sessions offered for full day classes:
